TIDEHAVEN HIGH SCHOOL

EL MATON, TEXAS

FOREWORD

Recession and inflation were factors that concerned everyone during the 1974-1975 school year. Even unemployment began to be a problem. This enforced the fact that a good education is a highly valued commodity.

Students at Tidehaven experienced the effects of rising prices in many of the projects used to raise money. But, because most students were dedicated to their class and/or club, raising money was not much of a problem.

All students contributed a part in these projects and other activities to make THS what it was then and what it will be in the future.

I sincerely hope that students and faculty alike will be able to "keep in touch" with one another through the pages of this yearbook that my staff and I have so devotedly put together.

DEDICATION

The annual staff of 1974-1975 is greatly pleased to dedicate this annual to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rose. Both have played a significant part in the growth of Tidehaven and its students. They have not only set high goals for the education of their students but also for themselves as teachers.

And may we strive to bring greater glory

With honor won for Tidehaven High.

Administration

first-period announcements over the P.A. system-taking time to talk with students-conferences with parents-conferences with teachers-conferences with school officials-keeping the red tape under control-answering steady streams of phone calls-turning the wheels that keep the "machinery" of school life going-and heading up those early morning teachers meetings...

1975 Senior Class Prophecy

It is the year 1985 in the experimental underwater city of Nelsenville, named after Linda, The Chick of the Sea, planned and constructed by that eccentric genius, Mike Crain. He burned up ten sliderules in the process, while his assistant, Randall Reed just sat around in his swimming trunks playing tiddly winks.

As we enter this city, we see Russell Claxton opening for the morning his prospering business of "Fifi's Poodle Shop." Well, what do you know, his first customer is Poochie Mozley coming in for her daily hair straightener.

As we turn the corner, we notice that Zapalac's Welding Shop has fallen down and David is desperately trying to weld it back together. Kevin Sparks is standing by laughing in his exterminator shorts, and David Woodson is walking a lizard and a parrot named Dennis and Douglas Havel around the remnants of the shop.

There's Gloria, the new owner of Boone's Slenderbolic, watching very depressed as her latest customer, Gina Darby, walks out of her shop. Gina has done in one day what Gloria has been trying years to do.

And here is Roades' Beauty Salon, owned and operated by Donna. Her model for today and every day is Mary Pena who is trying out the latest style - the blown Afro. As we see Edward Gurecky's glasses fogging up, we turn to find the reason - it's the swinging hips of Cathy Nedbalek who is now the current go-go girl of Nelsenville.

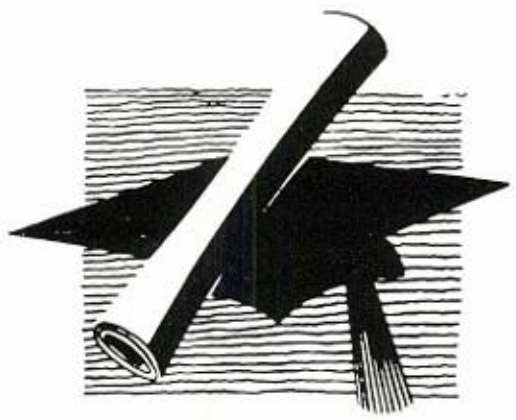
Down the street a couple of blocks, we see Mike Cano and Randy Ellis' Bubbly Ice Cream Bar. They serve the "strongest" rootbeer floats this side of the Atlantic. Tonight's entertainment in this shop features none other than the delightful Rainbow Mermaids, Rose Beyer, Mary Chavez, Cheryl Hadden, and Sharon Steffek.

Hey, what's that we see next? Why it's Frank Longoria, the hairy legged lifeguard for the Kiddy Pool. He's sitting on a tall ladder trying to show off his physique. June Jensen and Grace Hickl pass up Frank while campaigning for Wilanna Midgett, who is going on the fifth hour of her speech. This year she's running for president of the Underwater Newspaper. Wait, she must be finished; no, she just stopped for a short breather.

In the local Underwater Church we notice the Reverend Dan Hickl and his wives, Gail Junek and Janie Piwonka, assisting in the marriage of Mike Saha and Janet Bankhead. It took her ten long years to get him to the altar. The Salmon Sisters, Janice Merta, Carolyn Sanford, Debbie Mitchon, and Vickie Zielonka are singing "Hey, Little Goldfish."

Nearing the end of our underwater journey in Nelsenville, we stumble upon Sandra Kubala instructing Joel Hayes and David Sanders in the latest dance, "The Bumpy Wave."

As our journey through Nelsenville finally comes to an end, we wish the inhabitants as happy a life in the future as they seem to be leading right now.



1975 Senior Class Will

To the teachers of T.H.S. we, the Seniors of 1975, would like to leave all of our old homework papers and to the junior class we leave the honor of being seniors of T.H.S.

LINDA NELSEN leaves her UIL Science Score to PAUL KANA. JUNE JENSEN wills her editorship of the TIGER'S TALE to LISA BEANE. MARY PENA leaves her quietness and courtesy to HERMINIA AGUILERA. GRACE HICKL leaves her three dirty lockers to MARIA HARTER. WILANNA MIDGETT leaves her first chair in band to SUSAN KUBALA and her good English grades to LINDA NEDBALEK. CATHY NEDBALEK leaves her winning fights on the bus trip to Bay City to VIVIAN SOUTHALL and BRENDA KELSO. DONNA ROADES leaves her enjoyable school days at T.H.S. to MARILYN PESAK and TELISA CUMMINGS. DEANNE MOZLEY leaves her curly hair to CONNIE LEZAK. We hope that by using what we have willed them, the Juniors will be as good at being Seniors as we were . . .

Athletics

ace bandages and pulled muscles - late practice, early practice, - "one more lap around the field" sweat running down aching backs - "ten more push-ups and we'll call it a day" - and then, the first game - feeling a few butterflies - watching the cheerleaders go crazy on the sidelines - off the bench at last - just two seconds to go! - singing the national anthem - last minute instructions from the coach now go! ...
